3. Which service will we provide you with?

We're an established intermediary acting on your behalf. You will not receive advice or a recommendation from us. We may ask some questions to narrow down the selection of products that we will provide details on. You will then need to make your own choice on how to proceed.

4. What will you have to pay us for our services?

You will pay an arrangement fee of up to £25.00 when we first set up your Learner Driver policy and each time you request any extensions to the insurance cover period.

If your insurer instructs us to void your policy (meaning cancelling back to the start date and treating the policy as invalid from the outset) we retain the arrangement fee charged to cover our administration costs.

For Learner Driver insurance, we are paid a commission by the insurer based on your vehicle and your circumstances which forms part of your total premium.

5. Cancellations

Your policy cover will cease immediately you pass your driving test. You will need to notify us that you have passed your driving test to allow us to cancel your policy and arrange any refund due to you.

If we or the insurer cancel the policy, we will write to you providing a minimum of 7 days' notice of cancellation. This will be to your last known postal or e-mail address, in line with your preference to receive policy documentation.

Any refund due to you (less our arrangement fee to cover our administration costs) will be returned on the debit or credit card we hold on file. If the refund is less than £10, then no refund will apply.

6. What happens at renewal?

Ingenie Learner Driver policies are not renewable, but you can extend them on request.
